

Youth Discipleship Minister (Full-Time) – Westside Church of Christ in Bakersfield, CA is seeking a qualified, energetic leader with a heart for youth ministry. The ideal candidate will teach Biblical truth, build strong relationships with students, and work well with elders, parents, and volunteers to create a Christ-centered environment where young people are safe to grow and develop a lasting faith. We're looking for someone who will not only nurture students but also encourage them to become fishers of men in their daily lives. To explore this opportunity in purposeful ministry and Kingdom work, please apply.

To apply, please submit the following materials: a resume highlighting ministry experience, a statement of faith outlining your core beliefs and calling to youth ministry, and at least two ministry-related references.
