

Founders Scholarship

This scholarship opportunity is available to first-time students from the Churches of Christ and the Christian Church. The scholarship is a 50% off tuition scholarship for prospective students who meet specific criteria. The Founders Scholarship aims to support active members of the Church of Christ and Christian Church.

This scholarship will be renewable each year as long as the student continues to meet the criteria. This scholarship is a non-stackable scholarship opportunity. Prospective students from Churches of Christ and Christian Churches are encouraged to explore the myriad possibilities offered by the Founders Scholarship and the vibrant community at York University.

Students interested in this scholarship opportunity are encouraged to contact Roni Miller <mailto:rsmiller@york.edu> for more information.
